

Managing the Big Three within the Evidence Room- Webinar

Instructors: Joe Willis

Joseph Willis (retired) is a 25-year veteran of the Keene (NH) Police Department. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree magna cum laude from Franklin Pierce University. He is both a national instructor and an auditor in the property and evidence management field. He is a certified instructor through NHPS&T. While assigned as the department property and evidence officer, he was an integral member of the team to achieve CALEA recognition and certification for accreditation. Until his retirement he was the team leader for both the Collision Analysis and Hostage Negotiation units. Among many of his assignments, he served as a Juvenile Detective/Prosecutor, Major Crimes Detective, Platoon Case Manager, Undercover Narcotics Detective for the NH Attorney Generals Drug Task Force and finally as the Property and Evidence Manager. He is a member of the International Association for Property and Evidence, New England Association for Crisis Negotiators and President of NH Property and Evidence Room Management Professionals.

Course Objectives:

The webinar will cover current acceptable standards in compliance with accreditation expectations from organizations such as CALEA. Topics will cover proper storage, safety issues and disposal of Guns, Drugs and Money. Discussion will cover some legal requirements associated with the "Big Three". The objective upon completion of the webinar is to enlighten the viewer as to the necessity of proper storage of the high value items and avoid the risks inherent with such items.
